Mark, I made a mistake when we spoke – turns out Erik will not be here on March 15th. Given your folks may already be committed to the trip, we are happy to keep the meeting as is, with myself and staff, or we can try to reschedule for the following week. We can do just about any time the week of March 20th except for Thursday afternoon and Friday. Sorry about the confusion – I'm going to blame the lingering impact of the flu for my mistake.

Brian, thanks very much for our conversation this morning. The Kitchen Cabinet Manufacturers Association would like to meet with you at 3:00 on Wednesday, March 15.

Am I correct that the meeting will be at 1201 Constitution?
